Sunday, 15th October

11am Patronal Sung Eucharist. 7pm Choral Evensong.

15-22 Oct. Made in Roath: "Offering" by Sue Hunt & Susan Adams

What is art if not a gift? Few artists are economically sustained by their practice yet are compelled to continually make and offer their artworks to fellow creatures. Sue Hunt and Susan Adams explore offering through a collaboration involving silverpoint drawings and sculpture, with an opportunity to pass on the gift by offering to Mind Cymru.

15-22 Oct. Made in Roath: "The Last Straw" by Clive Ward (church grounds)

An installation highlighting the danger posed by plastic waste in our oceans ... incorporating the artwork of the Sunday School.

Wednesday, 18th October, 7.45pm:

Cardiff County & Vale of Glamorgan Symphonic Brass.

Friday 20th October, 7.30pm:

Jazz: The Gentle Rain Ensemble.

Saturday 21st October

11am. Coffee Concert: Noru Hirano (violin) & Alison Dite (piano) – Beethoven Violin Sonata op12 no 1 and Saint Saens Violin Sonata in D minor op75.

1pm. Nathan Munday will read from his latest book, Seven Days: a story of adventure and spirituality as father and son travel the "Rue du Bonjour" across the pilgrim route of the high Pyrenees, at St Edward's 1pm-2pm on Sat 21 Oct. The reading will be followed by a Q&A session and book signing.

21-22 October (Saturday and Sunday 11am-4pm) Made in Roath Exhibition.

Widening Access Summer School Exhibition Robert Blundell, Kathryn Murphy, Hannah Pickering, Gerri Blundell, Kerry Wallace, Keith Elwyn Evans, Anastasia Sidorenco, Claudia Carrillo. This is Cardiff Metropolitan University's Widening Access Summer School's first exhibition, with artists exhibiting for the first time. This mixed-media exhibition was either produced at the Summer School or inspired by what they learned.

21 Oct 2pm-4pm. Made in Roath: Folded Books Drop-in Workshop.

Transform a tatty old book into a work of art with just a few simple folds. Doreen Barnaville from Cardiff Met's School of Art & Design Library will show you how to create a unique sculptural piece which you can then take home. Bring a book you no longer want – or use one of ours – we'll have plenty!
